

You are going to hear a woman talking about a new idea for reducing pollution in Kenya. Listen and complete the notes with a word or short phrase or a number. Type the answers.

1. The population of Kenya's capital Nairobi, is about .

2. About 5,000 people die in Kenya every year as a result of .

3. When people chop down trees, it leads to a loss of for many animals.

4. Many people can't alternative fuels.

5. More people are moving to the big cities in search of .

6. There are now about of Koko's machines in Nairobi.

7. Bioethanol is a natural by-product of the industry.

8. The environmental cost of bioethanol used to be high because it came in .

9. Koko's containers connect to both the fuel dispensing machine and people's .

10. The speaker jokes that Koko haven't found a solution to the problem of in the country.