

You are going to hear a woman talking about a new idea for reducing pollution in Kenya. Listen and complete the notes with a word or short phrase or a number. Type the answers.

1. The population of Kenya's capital Nairobi, is about [ ] .
2. About 5,000 people die in Kenya every year as a result of [ ] .
3. When people chop down trees, it leads to a loss of [ ] for many animals.
4. Many people can't [ ] alternative fuels.
5. More people are moving to the big cities in search of [ ] .
6. There are now about [ ] of Koko's machines in Nairobi.
7. Bioethanol is a natural by-product of the [ ] industry.
8. The environmental cost of bioethanol used to be high because it came in [ ] .
9. Koko's containers connect to both the fuel dispensing machine and people's [ ] .
10. The speaker jokes that Koko haven't found a solution to the problem of [ ] in the country.