Questions 147–148 refer to the following e-mail.

TO: customerservice@perseusmart.com
FROM: amcclain@personalmail.com
SUBJECT: Freeport Store
DATE: July 11

To Whom It May Concern,

My name is Alice McClain. Yesterday, my husband and I visited the Perseus Mart in Freeport, where we had an unpleasant experience involving an employee there. We were shopping for a humidifier and requested assistance from Tim Nelson. We just moved from an area which is not dry during the winter months, so we had a number of questions about the basic functions of the machine and how to operate it. Not only was Tim unable to answer our questions, but he contradicted himself with some responses. When my husband pointed this out, Tim became rude and insinuated that we, not him, were at fault for not knowing about the product. We immediately left the store and went across the street to Electromart, where we were treated pleasantly and our questions were answered. We had expected to become loyal customers of Perseus Mart like we were in Albany, but it appears that won't be the case.

Regards,

Alice McClain

147. Why did Ms. McClain write the e-mail?

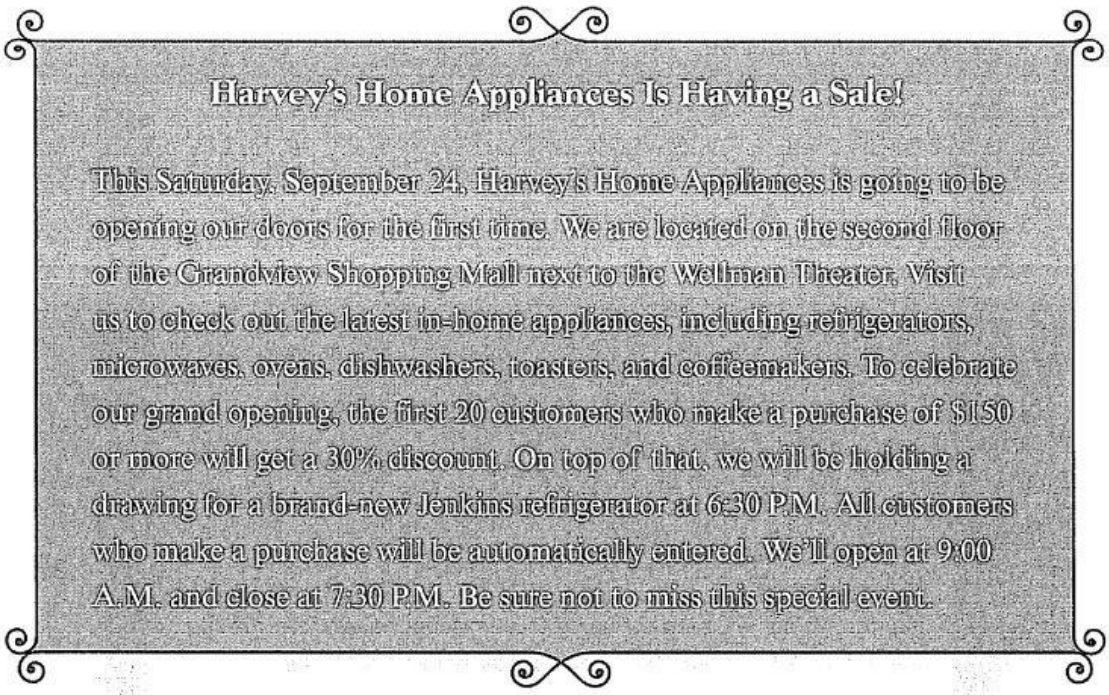

(A) To complain about some service she received
(B) To inquire about a product sold at Perseus Mart
(C) To get the location of the Freeport Perseus Mart

(B) Electromart has lower prices than Perseus Mart.
(C) Ms. McClain moved to Freeport from Albany.
