

1. (Base: real) Many people struggle to accept the harsh _____ of climate change.
2. (Base: reality) The movie was so _____ that it felt almost like a documentary.
3. (Base: realistic) The story was completely _____, but still entertaining.
4. (Base: depend) Children should learn to become more _____ as they grow up.
5. (Base: independence) Teenagers often want to be _____ from their parents.
6. (Base: dependent) You can't _____ on luck to pass the exam.
7. (Base: sympathy) She looked at him _____, understanding his situation.
8. (Base: sympathetic) He tried to _____ with her after hearing the news.
9. (Base: sympathize) I felt a lot of _____ for the injured dog.
10. (Base: honest) She answered all the questions _____ during the interview.
11. (Base: honesty) It was completely _____ of him to steal money.
12. (Base: honestly) The teacher punished the student for his _____.
13. (Base: accept) Her behaviour was totally _____ in a formal meeting.
14. (Base: acceptable) Many people still refuse to show _____ of new ideas.
15. (Base: acceptance) The school will not _____ late assignments.
16. (Base: visible) The mountain was almost _____ through the heavy fog.
17. (Base: vision) The stars became _____ only after the clouds cleared.
18. (Base: invisible) The artist tried to _____ the scene with perfect detail.
19. (Base: patient) I waited _____ for the bus even though it was late.
20. (Base: patience) He became completely _____ when the internet stopped working.
21. (Base: impatient) The long process tested everyone's _____.
22. (Base: responsible) You must act _____ when using the school facilities.
23. (Base: responsibility) His behaviour was extremely _____ and careless.
24. (Base: irresponsible) Good leaders always accept full _____ for their decisions.
25. (Base: polite) He spoke to the older woman very _____.
26. (Base: politeness) It is _____ to interrupt someone while they are speaking.
27. (Base: impolitely) Good _____ is important in public places.
28. (Base: decide) She made a very _____ choice about her career.
29. (Base: decisive) The manager will announce his final _____ tomorrow.
30. (Base: decision) They had to _____ quickly to catch the train.
31. (Base: act) The children were extremely _____ during the summer camp.
32. (Base: action) He loves participating in outdoor _____.
33. (Base: activity) The film's main actress delivered an outstanding _____.
34. (Base: actor) The coach told the players to remain _____ throughout the game.
35. (Base: active) We need to take strong _____ to protect the environment.
36. (Base: science) She wants to become a _____ in the future.
37. (Base: scientist) The new discovery was truly _____.
38. (Base: scientific) The theory cannot be tested _____.
39. (Base: moving) The refugees continued their _____ across the border.
40. (Base: movement) The heavy furniture was not easily _____.
41. (Base: move) It was one of the most _____ speeches I have ever heard.
42. (Base: advertise) The company released a new _____ yesterday.
43. (Base: advertising) She wants to work as an _____ after graduation.
44. (Base: advertisement) Many companies spend millions on online _____.
45. (Base: advertiser) They tried to make the product more _____ to customers.
46. (Base: realism) The story lacked any sense of _____.
47. (Base: unrealistic) The painting looked extremely _____.
48. (Base: reality) The plan was completely _____ and could not work.
49. (Base: depend) Poor weather conditions make the trip highly _____.
50. (Base: dependence) Children often behave _____ on their parents' support.
51. (Base: independent) She values her _____ and prefers to live alone.
52. (Base: sympathy) The charity relies on public _____ to help victims.
53. (Base: sympathetic) She looked at the crying child _____.

54. (Base: sympathize) I felt deep _____ after hearing his story.
55. (Base: honest) They admired his _____ during the investigation.
56. (Base: dishonest) She answered every question _____.
57. (Base: accept) His behaviour was absolutely _____ in that situation.
58. (Base: acceptance) The teacher can't _____ late homework.
59. (Base: acceptable) People are still waiting for official _____.
60. (Base: visible) The tiny insects were almost _____ to the human eye.
61. (Base: invisibility) Cats can move almost _____ at night.
62. (Base: vision) The artist wanted to _____ the scene more clearly.
63. (Base: patient) We must show more _____ when working with young children.
64. (Base: impatience) He reacted extremely _____ when told to wait.
65. (Base: patient) The long queue made everyone _____.
66. (Base: responsible) The accident happened because of his _____.
67. (Base: irresponsibility) She completed the task very _____.
68. (Base: polite) His rude behaviour was completely _____.
69. (Base: impolite) She greeted the guests very _____.
70. (Base: politeness) It was quite _____ of him to leave without saying goodbye.
71. (Base: decide) He acted very _____ under pressure.
72. (Base: decision) The student must _____ whether to join the club.
73. (Base: decisive) The team celebrated his quick _____.
74. (Base: act) The dancers moved _____ across the stage.
75. (Base: active) The teacher asked the students to take _____ in class.
76. (Base: activity) The famous _____ won several awards.
77. (Base: actor) They created a more _____ plan this time.
78. (Base: science) Her explanation was not entirely _____.
79. (Base: scientist) They tried to explain the results more _____.
80. (Base: scientific) The machine showed no signs of _____.
81. (Base: movement) The poem was deeply _____.
82. (Base: moving) The boxes were too heavy to be _____ by one person.
83. (Base: move) The protest grew into a major political _____.
84. (Base: advertise) The huge poster was part of a large _____ campaign.
85. (Base: advertisement) The company hired a new _____ to promote products.
86. (Base: advertiser) Online _____ has become extremely competitive.
87. (Base: real) His story sounded completely _____.
88. (Base: real) She was praised for her _____ approach to the issue.
89. (Base: depend) Some children grow up to be very _____ people.
90. (Base: independence) They behaved very _____ during the test.
91. (Base: sympathy) The teacher handled the problem very _____.
92. (Base: honest) Their _____ surprised everyone.
93. (Base: accept) He finished the task _____, without complaint.
94. (Base: acceptance) The rules require strict _____.
95. (Base: patient) She completed the task _____ and carefully.
96. (Base: responsibility) Such careless behaviour is completely _____.
97. (Base: polite) She answered the question _____.
98. (Base: politeness) Interrupting someone is considered _____.
99. (Base: decide) He spoke very _____ during the debate.
100. (Base: action) The students remained _____ in class discussions.