Once upon a time, a little girl named Marie lived in a small village. Marie was a very curious girl who always wanted to explore the world around her. One day, Marie decided to go on an adventure in the big city. The city was much bigger than Marie's village.

Marie's journey to the city was long and a lot of fun .

The journey was happier than Marie had imagined. One day, Marie went shopping with her new friend Maya. They went to a big department store and bought clothes and souvenirs. It was bigger than the shops in her village, and things were more expensive than in her village.

Marie also tried new food in the city, like pizza, pasta, and sushi. She found the food more delicious than the food in her village.

Marie thought the city was beautiful. She saw a lot of tall buildings and bridges. Marie felt the city was much more exciting than her village. Overall, Marie had a great time in the city. She learned a lot about new cultures and made some new friends. She also had much fun exploring the city and trying new things.

1. What did Marie find different about the city?

2. How was Marie's journey to the city?

3. What did Marie think about the food in the city?
