

There is – There are

A. Name the rooms of the house.

B. Complete with There is or There are.

1. _____ a kitchen in my house.
2. _____ two bedrooms.
3. _____ a bed in the bedroom.
4. _____ many books in the living room.
5. _____ an attic in my house.
6. _____ three chairs in the dining room.

C. Match the room with the meaning. Write the correct letter.

- a. A place where you sleep
- b. A place for your car
- c. A place where you eat meals
- d. A room at the top of the house with old things
- e. A room where you cook
- f. A room where you take a shower
- g. A room to relax, sit, and watch TV

- 1. living room _____
- 2. bedroom _____
- 3. kitchen _____
- 4. bathroom _____
- 5. dining room _____
- 6. attic _____
- 7. garage _____

D. Choose the correct option.

1. There is a (bed / beds) _____ in the bedroom.
2. There are (a chair / two chairs) _____ in the dining room.
3. There is an (attic / attics) _____ in my house.
4. There are (boxes / a box) _____ in the attic.
5. There is a (window / windows) _____ in the bathroom.
6. There are (a garage / two garages) _____ in her house.

E. Complete the sentences with the correct room.

kitchen – attic – bathroom – living room – bedroom – garage – dining room

1. There is a sofa in the _____.
2. There is a shower in the _____.
3. There are old boxes in the _____.
4. There is a big table in the _____.
5. There is a bed in the _____.
6. There are pots and pans in the _____.