

Science 5

4-3

I. Identify the word being described. Choose your answer from the box.

hibernating

adaptation prey

mimicking

camouflaging

migrate

predator

light

habitat

1. It is when animals change their physical features or features to fit the environment.
2. This is where organisms naturally grow or live.
3. When an arctic hare changes its fur from brown to white during winter to hide from its enemies, it is _____.
4. When the lion hunts for a zebra for its food, the lion is the _____.
5. When ladybugs become inactive during the winter when food is limited, they are _____.
6. Bioluminescent animals have their own _____ to attract mates and guide them especially for deep sea creatures.
7. Elephants _____ or travel long distance near river or any bodies of water during dry season to look for food.
8. When an animal copies the traits of another animal, it is said to be _____.

II. Identify if the animal is useful or harmful. Then, write your explanation in the box.

1. chicken

2. dog

_____ 3. fly

_____ 4. sheep

_____ 5. scorpion