

WINDOW ON GRAMMAR

There is/There are

Read the sentences.

There is a fire station on High Street.

There is a post office on Main Street.

There are two supermarkets on Low Street.

There are three gas stations in town.

Complete the sentences with is or are.

1. There _____ six movie theaters in town.
2. There _____ a supermarket on Daniel Street.
3. There _____ two schools on State Street.
4. There _____ a community center in town.

Read the sentences.

QUESTIONS

Is there a bank on Third Street?

Is there a school on Third Street?

Are there parks in town?

Are there movie theaters in town?

ANSWERS

Yes, there is.

No, there isn't.

Yes, there are.

No, there aren't.

Complete the sentences with Is there or Are there. Then ask a partner.

1. _____ a supermarket near your home?
2. _____ a community center near your home?
3. _____ gas stations in your town?
4. _____ a bank across from your home?
5. _____ good restaurants near your home?
6. _____ two movie theaters on your street?