

Modal Verbs Activity.

Activity 1

Completa las oraciones con el modal correcto

Escribe can, could, may, might, must, should, have to, will, would según corresponda.

1. You _____ wear your uniform every day. (obligation)
2. She _____ speak three languages. (ability)
3. _____ you open the window, please? (polite request)
4. It _____ rain later, so take an umbrella. (possibility)
5. Students _____ study for the exam tomorrow. (necessity)
6. He _____ arrive early; he isn't sure. (less certain possibility)
7. We _____ start the project next Monday. (future)
8. _____ I go to the restroom? (permission)
9. You _____ exercise more. It's good for your health. (advice)
10. They _____ like to visit the museum. (polite offer/intention)

Activity 2

Completa las oraciones con el modal correcto.

Usa: can, could, may, might, must, should, have to, will, would.

1. You _____ drink more water during the day to stay hydrated. (advice)
2. Students _____ eat fruits and vegetables every day. (recommendation)
3. If you want to improve your endurance, you _____ run 20 minutes daily.
(obligation/necessity)
4. She _____ go to the gym later, but she's not sure yet. (possibility)
5. _____ you help me prepare a healthy salad? (polite request)
6. People _____ avoid eating too much sugar. (advice)
7. If we exercise regularly, we _____ feel more energetic. (future result)
8. You _____ warm up before exercising to prevent injuries. (strong necessity)
9. He _____ eat fast food today; it depends on his schedule. (less certain possibility)
10. _____ you like to join our yoga class this afternoon? (polite offer)