Start a new topic ... LEGO

GEORGE

When I finish my homework, I usually play with Lego. It's my favourite hobby. I have a collection of more than twenty sets! Right now, my family and I are visiting the LEGOLAND Discovery Centre in Manchester. There are over three million Lego bricks here! Some people in LEGOLAND work as Master Model Builders. They use Lego bricks to build huge buildings, aeroplanes and even animals. What a cool job! Does anyone else on this forum like playing with Lego? What interesting facts do you know about Lego? What does the name Lego mean?

KAREN

The name Lego comes from the Danish phrase leg godt and it means play well. There are over four billion Lego minifigures and 400 billion Lego bricks around the world! My brother and I enjoy building with Lego, and sometimes our grandfather plays with us, too. His Lego bricks are more than 50 years old, but he can put them together with our new ones.

DANNY

I am in a Lego club. I often hang out with my new friends and we usually watch Lego films or play Lego video games together. I'm playing Lego Worlds on my computer now. There are more than 50 Lego video games and more than 20 Lego films.
