

The sentences below have mistakes. Correct the sentences so they are grammatically correct.

1. The students likes the new teacher.
2. Everyone are excited about the trip.
3. My family are planning a picnic.
4. Each of the presentations were interesting.
5. The list of topics are on the table.
6. Neither of the answers are correct.
7. The team are winning the match.
8. One of the boys have lost his ID card.
9. The number of cars are increasing.
10. The books on the shelf is old.
11. The teacher and the students is ready to start.
12. Some of the information are missing.
13. Neither Ali nor his friends is coming.
14. The results of the experiment shows a big change.
15. Most of the students was absent yesterday.

The sentences below have mistakes. Correct the sentences so they are grammatically correct.

1. The students likes the new teacher.
2. Everyone are excited about the trip.
3. My family are planning a picnic.
4. Each of the presentations were interesting.
5. The list of topics are on the table.
6. Neither of the answers are correct.
7. The team are winning the match.
8. One of the boys have lost his ID card.
9. The number of cars are increasing.
10. The books on the shelf is old.
11. The teacher and the students is ready to start.
12. Some of the information are missing.
13. Neither Ali nor his friends is coming.
14. The results of the experiment shows a big change.
15. Most of the students was absent yesterday.