Read the story. Choose a word from the box. Write the correct word next to numbers 1-5. There is one example.

My friend Matthew loves to travel around the world. He usually visits big cities because he thinks that small places are a bit boring. I don't like cities because they are more ___crowded___ than towns, but Matthew says that cities are (1) _____ because there are many concerts, parties, movie theaters and big malls.

Every time Matthew visits a big city, he meets people from different places and enjoys talking about their traditions. He says that we live in a (2) _____ world and that it is important to respect other people's cultures and traditions.

Before he goes on vacation, he always checks the weather because he says that it's important to be prepared. For example, if a place is very (3)_____, you need to put on sunscreen so that you don't get sunburned when walking on the street. He went to the jungle once, but he did not like it because it rained all the time, so the weather was extremely (4) _____.

What he enjoys the most is to visit cities surrounded by mountains because when it is cold enough, he can take pictures of beautiful (5) _____ mountains, and he can also go skiing.

(6) Now choose the best name for the story. Mark (✔) one box.

- People from around the world ☐

First day of class

Going to a new school is not easy. My name is Jenny, and my family and I just moved to a new town. Yesterday was my first day of class, and I was so nervous that I had a stomachache. My parents taught me how to get to school, and they told me that if I got lost, I should (1) _____ for directions. Well... I was sure I wasn't going to get lost. I knew that I had to walk four blocks until I saw a (2) _____ with three dolphins, then I had to turn right and continue walking until I saw a (3) _____ of Abraham Lincoln and the entrance of the school would be there across the street.

Most of the children went with their parents, so it was very (4) _____ when I got to school. When the bell rang, I didn't know where to go, but a counselor told me that she was there to help the students. She also told me where my (5) _____ was. My teacher was very nice, and all of my classmates were very friendly. I had a good first day at my new school.

Example

fever	cold	stomachache
1. ask	take	get
2. fountain	gas station	parking lot
3. park	monument	mall
4. empty	crowded	dark
5. gym	auditorium	classroom

Summer plans

The O'Haras are planning their summer vacations. "Where should we go on vacation this year?" asked Dad. "How about the hotel on the beach where we stayed last year?" Tom answered.

"Yes, there were many activities to do and the beach was beautiful," Sue added. "That's true. We had a lot of fun. We could go there again, but I also think that we should visit a new place," Betty said. "I agree. I think we should go to a new place this year. You know, have different experiences," Mom said.

Examples

The family is planning their summer vacations.

Tom wants to go to a hotel on the beach.

1. Sue thinks the beach was _____.
2. Betty and Mom want to go to a _____.

"I'd like to go to Argentina or Mexico," Mom continued. "Both countries have beautiful beaches and many museums."

"Which country is livelier?" Dad asked. "My friend Vicky went to Mexico last year, and she told me that the people are very friendly, there are lots of festivals and the food is diverse," Betty said. "She also visited Argentina before, and she told me that Mexico is livelier."

3. Mom said Argentina and Mexico have beautiful _____ and museums.
4. Vicky told Betty that Mexican food is _____.
5. Vicky told Betty that Mexico is _____ than Argentina.

"How about India? I know that it's a multicultural country with interesting traditions. We could visit the Taj Mahal if we go there," Tom said.

"Both Mexico and India sound exciting," Dad said. "We need to think about the weather. I wouldn't like to go a hot place."

"Well, now we have two different options," Mom said. "Why don't we think about them, and we can make our decision tomorrow?"

"Yes, let's do that," The three children said.

6. Tom said India is multicultural and has _____.
7. Dad doesn't want to go to a _____ place.
