

INVERTEBRATES

1.- Complete the sentences and match the two halves correctly.

- Most of the world's animals are _____
- Invertebrates do not have a backbone or an internal bone _____
- All invertebrates are _____
- Invertebrates live on land and in water, but most _____ skeleton.

invertebrates.

live in water.

oviparous.

2.- Complete the table with the correct words.

Vertebrates

Invertebrates

Have no backbone or internal bone skeleton	Have a backbone and an internal bone skeleton
Are oviparous	Are oviparous Can be viviparous or oviparous

3.- Choose the correct answer (True or False) in the following sentences.

- There are different types of cnidarians and they live in water. TRUE / FALSE
- Jellyfish, corals and anemones are fixed in one place. TRUE / FALSE
- Some jellyfish have poisonous tentacles. TRUE / FALSE
- Worms have legs and hard covering. TRUE / FALSE
- Worms have long, sometimes flat, bodies. TRUE / FALSE
- Echinoderms live in salt water and they often have spines. TRUE / FALSE
- Most starfish have five arms, but some have more. TRUE / FALSE
- All molluscs are land animals. TRUE / FALSE
- Molluscs don't have legs, but some have tentacles. TRUE / FALSE
- Snails have a spiral shell protecting their body. TRUE / FALSE
- All arthropods have wings and can fly. TRUE / FALSE
- Porifera or sea sponges absorb nutrients from land. TRUE / FALSE

