

INVERTEBRATES

1.- Complete the sentences and match the two halves correctly.

- Most of the world's animals are _____ skeleton.
- Invertebrates do not have a backbone or an internal bone _____ invertebrates.
- All invertebrates are _____ live in water.
- Invertebrates live on land and in water, but most _____ oviparous.

2.- Complete the table with the correct words.

Vertebrates	Invertebrates
Have no backbone or internal bone skeleton	Have a backbone and an internal bone skeleton
Are oviparous	Are oviparous Can be viviparous or oviparous

3.- Choose the correct answer (True or False) in the following sentences.

- There are different types of cnidarians and they live in water.

TRUE / FALSE

- Jellyfish, corals and anemones are fixed in one place.

TRUE / FALSE

- Some jellyfish have poisonous tentacles.

TRUE / FALSE

- Worms have legs and hard covering.

TRUE / FALSE

- Worms have long, sometimes flat, bodies.

TRUE / FALSE

- Echinoderms live in salt water and they often have spines.

TRUE / FALSE

- Most starfish have five arms, but some have more.

TRUE / FALSE

- All molluscs are land animals.

TRUE / FALSE

- Molluscs don't have legs, but some have tentacles.

TRUE / FALSE

- Snails have a spiral shell protecting their body.

TRUE / FALSE

- All arthropods have wings and can fly.

TRUE / FALSE

- Porifera or sea sponges absorb nutrients from land.

TRUE / FALSE

