The Tower of London

The Tower of London is one of the most famous historical landmarks in England. It is located on the north bank of the River Thames in central London. This ancient castle was built by William the Conqueror in 1078 and has stood for more than nine centuries.

The Tower of London has served many purposes throughout history. It was once a royal palace, a prison, an armory, and even a zoo. Today, it is a popular tourist attraction visited by millions of people every year. The Tower is best known for housing the Crown Jewels, a collection of beautiful and priceless royal treasures.

Visitors can explore its tall stone walls, towers, and gates while learning about England's rich history. The Yeoman Warders, also known as Beefeaters, guide visitors and share fascinating stories about the Tower's past. From its ancient architecture to the legends of ghosts and royal mysteries, the Tower of London remains a symbol of Britain's powerful history.

My Village

I live in a small and peaceful village called Sukamaju. It is surrounded by green rice fields and tall coconut trees. The air is fresh, and the people are very friendly.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

In my village, most people work as farmers. Every morning, I can see them going to the fields to plant or harvest rice. There is also a clear river where children like to swim and play.
My village has a small school, a mosque, and a traditional market. On Sundays, many people go to the market to buy vegetables, fruits, and fish. Life in my village is simple, but it is full of happiness and togetherness

Lina: We need to make a new advertisement for our school event, but I’m not sure how to start.
Dimas: I think you should start by deciding the main message. What do you want people to know first?
Lina: Good point. Maybe I’ll highlight the theme and the date.
Dimas: That’s great. You could also add a catchy slogan to make it more interesting.

Lina: A slogan sounds nice, but I'm not good at making one.
Dimas: Well, you might try using simple and memorable words. Short phrases work best, like "Join the Fun!" or "Don't Miss It!".
Lina: Hmm, I like that idea.
Dimas: And I suggest adding some bright colors to the poster so it grabs people's attention.
Lina: Yes, that will make it stand out.
Dimas: You could also put the advertisement on social media. That way, more students will see it.
Lina: Perfect suggestion! I'll do that. Thanks, Dimas.
Dimas: Anytime! Let me know if you need help designing it.
