

Reading Comprehension

From: Brenda

To: Kelly

Subject: Problems with sis

Hello Kelly,

How are you? I miss you so much. I haven't had anyone to talk to about my problems since you left. At the moment I've got a serious problem and need your help.

It's to do with my sister Ellen. Last week I took her camera without asking and I lost it. I haven't told her yet, but she's going to find out soon. You see, she's going to Egypt next week and she's going to need it. I am absolutely terrified that I have ruined her entire holiday before she's even left. She was planning on taking thousands of pictures on that special trip. What should I do? If I tell her, she'll get really angry. And you know how Ellen is when she's upset. She'll never let me borrow any of her things again.

Unfortunately, there's more. I've been frantically searching the house for it, hoping it will just turn up, but I know it won't. Next weekend, there's a great party and I don't want to miss it. The problem is I haven't got anything cool to wear. So, I was thinking of borrowing something from Ellen. But if she finds out about the camera, I can forget it. What do you suggest I do? If I had the money, I would buy her a new camera, but I don't. What would you do if you were me?

Write back as soon as possible.

Yours,
Brenda
