On the roof, there would be solar panels to 11.2..... energy from the sun, so I would not need to use too much electricity.

Inside, I would decorate my house with 11.3..... to make it feel cozy, especially in the evening. I want to use 11.4..... to control the lights. The lights would turn on automatically when I enter a room, so I would not have to flip switches.

I would have modern 11.5..... like a washing machine, a refrigerator, and a microwave. All of them are energy-efficient to help save power. If my house is tall, it would have an elevator to make it easy for everyone to go upstairs. This dream living environment would be comfortable, energy-saving, and friendly to the planet. I hope to make it real one day!

Read the passage then choose the correct answer to each question.

After only 50 minutes flying from Ho Chi Minh City, visitor will set foot on the tropical paradise of Vietnam and the world: Phu Quoc Island.

The island has a triangular shape with a north-south length of 50km and a west-east width of 25km. Most of the island is covered with beautiful sandy beaches, but there are also mountains with 99 peaks. The tallest peak is Chua Mountain, which rises to 603 meters. Because Phu Quoc is located in the Gulf of Thailand, it has a warm, tropical climate with nice weather all year round. However, the best time to visit is from November to March, when it is dry and the sky is clear.

Phu Quoc is famous for its cuisines and natural wonderful coastline. The most famous speciality of Phu Quoc is fish sauce, which has become quite popular all over Vietnam and the world. Besides, another thing worth trying there is the spicy but interesting black pepper. However, the factor that will definitely attract you to visit Phu Quoc is its untouched coastline with several wonderful beaches. They are still not fully developed, which gives them a beautiful, romantic charm that you can't find anywhere else.

Question 12
