Dear Diary,

This was the best day of my school holidays. We stayed at a large hotel near the sea in Egypt with another family. The two dads said they wanted to see the country. The mums were very lazy and decided to lie in the sun by the pool at the hotel and Emma came with them. So the two dads, and all the children, including me went off to explore. We left on a bus very early and started our journey into the desert. We arrived at the pyramids at midday. It was hot and sunny and the air was very warm. We went on a tour inside the great pyramid. We had to climb lots of steps in the dark. I thought it was very exciting!

Near the pyramids we saw a very friendly man who chatted to us. He had eight camels so we all went on a camel ride. I was a bit frightened and held onto its harness so I didn't fall. Then, my camel wouldn't move! The man got it and pushed it and then it started to walk, very slowly. George rode his camel very fast when suddenly he fell off. The man helped George but George couldn't stand because his foot hurt. George cried. His foot was very sore, so Dad had to carry him back to the bus.

After the camel ride we were hungry so we went to a restaurant and we had a delicious meal there. The waiter was kind and served us lots of Egyptian food. Harry ate so many hamburgers there! Then it was time to go back. Harry felt really ill on the journey home and when we got back to the hotel he went straight to bed! I didn't! Mum took Emma and I to see some Egyptian dancers. That was a great surprise!

Then in the afternoon we went into the desert 2 and saw some people who _____ living in tents there. There's different music there – pop and rock!

Lots of love
Holly
