Choose the correct options of the phrasal verb

1. It's no good, I can't put up / off / on writing this report any longer. I'll start now.
2. Stop messing about. It's time you sat / put / got down to writing your CV and looking for a part-time job.
3. Before I write my dissertation, I'm going to carry / burn / map out each chapter, so I can plan my research.
4. Max was exhausted, but he managed to keep out / at / towards the task until he'd finished and could present it to his boss.
5. Remember to take breaks while you're studying for your exams or you'll burn / carry / set out!
6. If you want to succeed, you should set / put / keep out your objectives and think about how to archive each one. It will motivate you!
7. You can't rely on Jack, he never works / puts / carries out half of what he says he'll do. He gives up when things get tough.

LIVEWORKSHEETS