

2 Change the verbs into the passive form.

	Active	Passive
e.g.	I didn't reach the goal.	The goal wasn't reached _____.
a)	I didn't reach the goals.	The goals _____.
b)	She isn't teaching the children.	The children _____.
c)	They aren't teaching the class.	The class _____.
d)	They have seen that film.	That film _____.
e)	She has seen those films.	Those films _____.
f)	They were exposing the truth.	The truth _____.
g)	She was exposing the liars.	The liars _____.
h)	The principal will question them.	They _____.
i)	He doesn't trust them.	They _____.
j)	They don't trust him.	He _____.
k)	He didn't startle her.	She _____.
l)	He didn't startle them.	They _____.
m)	He had taught them.	They _____.

1 Change the sentences/questions from the active into the passive.

e.g. Natasha was shutting Simon's bag when Harry startled her.

Simon's bag was being shut by Natasha when Harry startled her.

a) Simon has passed out a lot of those stupid surveys.

b) Harry isn't accusing Jessica of the cyberbullying.

c) Natasha didn't eat lunch and that's why she was hungry.

d) Harry glanced at Penelope.

e) Penelope and Harry always compete for awards.

f) Jessica and her friends will find the trophy.

g) Jared was teasing Natasha for liking the new teacher's assistant, Todd.

h) Jessica interrupted Harry because she needed to talk to him.

i) Will the students solve the cyberbullying mystery?

j) Have they exposed the person responsible for the cyberbullying?

k) Jessica and Natasha weren't sitting on the grass.

l) Most of the girls in the class have liked Harry since the start of the year.

m) Did Harry startle Natasha when he suddenly appeared out of nowhere?

n) Are Penelope and Harry accusing Jessica?

o) Is Natasha telling them the truth?

p) Simon will tell them the same thing.

q) The students had discussed the issue of cyberbullying many times before they went to the teacher.