

Listening

Listen to an interview about how to get a job. Are the sentences true (T) or false (F)?

- 1 Sue says that people on low salaries are as happy as people on high salaries. ____
- 2 Her advice is to send a covering letter and a CV with an application form. ____
- 3 She believes that you don't need a degree if you can work well with others. ____
- 4 She says it's important to think about your appearance in advance. ____
- 5 She believes that being unsuccessful can sometimes be a good thing. ____

Multiple choice task

1. What does Sue say is the first thing people should do when looking for a job?
 - A. Look for the highest salary
 - B. Think about what they enjoy and are good at
 - C. Ask friends for advice
2. What does Sue say about money?
 - A. It's the most important part of any job
 - B. Most people are happier the more they earn
 - C. After a certain amount, more money doesn't make you happier
3. What should people do before sending a CV or application form?
 - A. Call the employer directly
 - B. Research the job and the employer
 - C. Visit the office in person
4. Where can people usually find information about the job?
 - A. In the local newspaper
 - B. At a job fair
 - C. Online
5. What does Sue say about qualifications?
 - A. The right degree is always necessary
 - B. Teamwork skills can be more important than a degree
 - C. Only experienced workers get good jobs
6. What should people prepare before an interview?
 - A. Their answers to every question
 - B. Ideas about what to wear and what questions to expect
 - C. A long speech about themselves
7. Why shouldn't people prepare answers word-for-word?
 - A. They may forget them
 - B. They won't sound natural
 - C. Interviewers don't like long answers
8. What does Sue recommend people talk about at the interview?
 - A. What they can do
 - B. What they can't do
 - C. Their personal problems
9. What does Sue say people should not do at interviews?
 - A. Smile too much
 - B. Ask questions
 - C. Lie about their abilities
10. What does Sue say you should do if you don't get the job?
 - A. Stop looking for a while
 - B. Keep searching because it wasn't the right job
 - C. Complain to the employer

Listen to two people talking about a trip around the world. Are the sentences true (T) or false (F)?

- 1 They decided not to fly because they were worried about the environment. _____
- 2 The ship that they travelled on didn't stop anywhere on the journey. _____
- 3 Ella was well prepared for the journey on the ship. _____
- 4 Ella and Harry enjoyed talking to the people who worked on the ship. _____
- 5 Ella thought that her camping knife was the most useful thing. _____