

Will and Going To – Reading & Activities

Reading: “Weekend Plans”

Ashley and her cousin Camila are talking about their weekend.

Ashley is going to visit her grandparents on Saturday morning because she hasn’t seen them in weeks. In the afternoon, she is going to help her mom cook a big family dinner.

On Sunday, Ashley thinks the weather will be nice, so she will go to the park with her little brother. They will play soccer and eat ice cream.

Camila has different plans. She is going to study for an important biology test. She knows it will be difficult, but she thinks she will do a great job if she studies hard.

Both girls are excited because they know the weekend will be fun and productive.

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What is Ashley going to do on Saturday morning?
 - A. Go to the park
 - B. Visit her grandparents
 - C. Study biology

2. What will Ashley do on Sunday?
 - A. Visit her grandparents
 - B. Help her mom cook
 - C. Go to the park

3. What are Ashley and her brother going to do at the park?
 - A. Study biology
 - B. Play soccer
 - C. Visit their grandparents

4. What is Camila going to study for?
 - A. A math exam
 - B. A biology test
 - C. A history project

True or False

5. Ashley will study for a biology test on Sunday. _____
6. Camila thinks the test will be easy. _____

Matching

Match the sentence with the person:

1. Going to study for a biology test. _____
2. Will go to the park on Sunday. _____

- A. Ashley
B. Camila

Writing Task

Write 2-3 sentences about your own future plans.

- Use at least 3 sentences with 'going to'
- Use at least 3 sentences with 'will'
- Use 2 mixed sentences (both forms)