

vibrant	achieve a goal
get a glimpse of	easily reached former	the topics covered in a course of study expand	having little money to live on fulfil	exciting, active syllabus	previous; having previously been in another state measure	great; impressive low-income	to increase in size, number, amount or importance accessible	to see a small part of sth; to see sth briefly resounding	to use a device to discover the proportions/size/amount of smth freshman	to find your way at sea by using a map navigate	to make sb feel interested or enthusiastic about sth founder	the place you go through to get access to a certain area thrive	a person who established an institution or organisation stimulate	a student in the first year at a high school or university (in the usa) gateway	to take up space in an area occupy	to grow and develop well; to flourish state school	a school that receives no money from the government and where the education of students is paid for by their parents private school	a school for young children, usually aged 5 to 11 primary school	a school run by the government that provides free education secondary school	a school where children can live and study during the academic year public school	a school which provides training and teaches skills for particular professions nursery school	a school for students between 11 to 16 or 18 sixth form college	a school where either girls or boys are taught vocational school	in Britain a private school for students aged 13-18 whose parents pay for education grammar school	a school for children between 3 and 5 years old boarding school	a secondary school for boys and girls of all abilities over 11 comprehensive school	a school in Great Britain for students 11-18 who have high academic ability single-sex school	in Britain a school providing education for students aged 16-18