School Clean-Up Day

On the 20th of March, our school organized a clean-up activity to improve the campus environment. First, teachers explained the goal of the project and gave safety instructions. Second, students were divided into small groups and assigned to different areas. Next, everyone collected trash and organized the surroundings. After that, the atmosphere was productive because all students cooperated well. Finally, the principal thanked everyone for their effort.

5 points
Topic Sentence:
List Words:
Time Words:
Title:
The additional reason using because:

Read the passage and find 5 mistakes about capital letters and commas.

last Saturday, our class joined a small workshop at the city library where mr. somchai taught us how to create posters. My friends nina, mark and I worked together, and we presented our ideas to the group.

LIVEWORKSHEETS