

Adverbs of Degree

- Adverbs of degree are a specific type of adverb that modify adjectives, verbs and other adverbs to indicate the intensity, extent or degree of an action or quality.
- They help provide more precise information about how much or to what extent something is happening.

Example

Is the soup salty?
 The soup's a little salty.
 It's not very salty, but it's saltier than I like.

Example

How does he drive?
 He drives terribly fast.
 He drives very fast; too fast for me.

- We often use a little and terribly to describe something that is not pleasing.
- Quite and rather are synonyms but rather is more formal and is used for negative things or surprisingly positive things
