

TRS501 – Part 2 – Vocabulary

1. Modern translation tools can greatly _____ language learners by helping them understand difficult texts more easily.
A. enable
B. restrict
C. saturate
D. derive
2. The manager checked twice to _____ that the safety rules were followed during the experiment.
A. thaw
B. pursue
C. ensure
D. saturate
3. Before we start the project, we need your _____ so we can adjust the plan according to your needs.
A. textiles
B. input
C. destiny
D. fortress
4. The audience found the explanation confusing because too many ideas were mixed together, making it sound like complete _____.
A. decline
B. aversion
C. nonsense
D. coincidence
5. The speaker used very _____ hints that only experienced listeners were able to pick up.
A. thermal
B. massive
C. subtle
D. chronic
6. Teenagers often depend on social _____ to decide how they should behave in certain situations.
A. arteries
B. displacement
C. cues
D. constraints
7. The students prepared well _____ taking their final speaking exam, so they felt confident.
A. prior to
B. exclusively

- C. spontaneously
- D. adversely

8. Some emotions, like fear and joy, are considered _____ because people share them across cultures.

- A. fortified
- B. textile
- C. universal
- D. innovative

9. Although her idea was unusual at first, it quickly became _____ after gaining support from young people.

- A. mainstream
- B. vulnerable
- C. ambiguous
- D. chronic

10. The religion has many _____ who strongly believe in its teachings and traditions.

- A. mammals
- B. gestures
- C. pursuits
- D. adherents

11. The judge said the decision was not based on facts but on an _____ choice that lacked any clear reason.

- A. saturated
- B. adverse
- C. arbitrary
- D. elaborated

12. Climate change will have _____ effects on countries that depend heavily on agriculture.

- A. sweeping
- B. humble
- C. saturated
- D. complementary

13. Scientists argue that language development is partly _____, meaning humans are born with certain abilities.

- A. masculine
- B. marketable
- C. evaporated
- D. innate

14. The study is not based on opinions but on _____ data gathered over several years.

- A. iffy
- B. woven

- C. empirical
- D. chronic

15. The plan sounds a bit _____ to me; I'm not sure it will actually work in real life.

- A. phenomenal
- B. fortified
- C. unravelled
- D. iffy

16. Too much social media can affect your _____ abilities, such as memory and attention.

- A. cognitive
- B. thermal
- C. robust
- D. textile

17. The writer complained that strict time _____ limited his creativity, making it harder to finish the story.

- A. displacement
- B. constraints
- C. gestures
- D. doctrines

18. Spending long hours in complete _____ sometimes helps people focus better on creative projects.

- A. arteries
- B. textiles
- C. isolation
- D. optimism

19. The river serves as a natural _____ between the two provinces, which helps prevent territorial disputes.

- A. coincidence
- B. platform
- C. scab
- D. boundary

20. We shouldn't _____ that everyone who is quiet is unfriendly; some people are simply shy.

- A. presume
- B. relocate
- C. evaporate
- D. trigger

|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |
|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. The two colours look good together because they are _____ and balance each other well.</li> <li>2. The dentist told me that a small _____ had formed in my tooth and needed cleaning.</li> <li>3. Athletes need strong _____ responses to handle extreme heat or cold during competitions.</li> <li>4. The toy makes a clicking _____ when the pieces are put together correctly.</li> <li>5. A speed _____ has been introduced to reduce accidents in the school area.</li> <li>6. Tight shoes can _____ your feet and make walking uncomfortable.</li> <li>7. I tried to _____ all my ideas into one paragraph but it became too long.</li> <li>8. Her polite _____ made a good impression during the interview.</li> <li>9. The loud music made the windows _____, which surprised everyone.</li> <li>10. The teacher had high _____ for the class, hoping they would improve quickly.</li> </ol> | <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>A. vibrate</li> <li>B. complementary</li> <li>C. constrict</li> <li>D. expectation</li> <li>E. manner</li> <li>F. cavity</li> <li>G. string together</li> <li>H. physiological</li> <li>I. restriction</li> <li>J. click</li> </ol> |
|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|