1 Complete the conversations.

Tip: Sometimes an option may be right for the situation but not exactly the right reply for the question.

1 Can I help you?
- A The changing rooms are over there.
- (B) Have you got any winter coats?
- C What's up?

2 Would you like to come to my party?
- A It's going to be a surprise.
- B Give me a break!
- C When is it?

3 I bought the last concert ticket.
- A What a nightmare!
- B Well done!
- C That's not a good idea.

4 Is it OK for us to wait here?
- A Please wait for me.
- B I don't think this will happen.
- C I'm sorry but you can't.

5 I've lost my phone.
- A Thanks for telling me.
- B Sure – go ahead.
- C When did you last use it?

6 I've got a computer problem.
- A Fingers crossed.
- B Can I help?
- C I get the message.

2 Complete the telephone conversation between two friends. Match gaps 1–6 with sentences A–I.

Tip: Remember to read the whole conversation after you've chosen the answers to check that it makes sense.

A: Hi! You look very relaxed.
B: [1] I
A: Lucky you! Where did you go?
B: [2] ___
A: That's a beautiful area. Was the weather good?
B: [3] ___
A: I went swimming at the beach last week and it was really cold. I only stayed in for five minutes. But that was on the east coast. I've never been to Bournemouth.
B: [4] ___
A: What a great idea! Thanks, I'd love to. I'll try and save some money.
B: [5] ___
A: Great! I got a new tent for my birthday. I haven't used it yet.
B: [6] ___
A: Yes, it is. No problem. Next year you'll be nice and dry.

- A We go camping. It won't be very expensive.
- B Well, it rained for the first three days but then we had some sun. The sea was very warm.
- C Dad drove us there and it took five hours.
- D We went to the south coast, near Bournemouth.
- E I must show you some photographs later.
- F Cool! Is it big enough for two people? My tent is old and the rain gets in.
- G We want to go back there again next year because it was a lot of fun. Would you like to come with us?
- H Don't worry. You can stay in my tent.
- I I've just been on holiday for two weeks!
