

The page is decorated with a light beige background. At the top, two strings of colorful Christmas lights (red, yellow, green, and blue) curve downwards. Small red starburst symbols are scattered around the text. At the bottom, a single string of similar lights runs horizontally. The text "Christmas – future tenses" is centered in a large, red, sans-serif font.

Christmas – future tenses

Form the verbs with “going to” or “will” depending on the context.

-
1. What do you think Santa ..... (bring) you this year?
  2. The weather forecast says it ..... (be) a white Christmas.
  3. If you're naughty, Santa ..... (bring) you coal.
  4. We ..... (sing) Christmas carols at the party tonight.
  5. Rudolph is sick this year, so he ..... (not pull) Santa's sleigh.

-
-
6. This year we ..... (put) up our Christmas tree in November.
  7. –I'm not tall enough to put the star on the tree. –Don't worry, I..... (do) it.
  8. You ..... (not wear) that ugly Christmas sweater, right?
  9. Have you decided what you ..... (make) for Christmas dinner?
  10. Someday Santa ..... (deliver) presents in a rocket ship.
  11. –Where are you going with that wreath? –I ..... (hang) it on the front door.
  12. Look! Debbie and Tom are under the mistletoe. They ..... (kiss)!
-

-
-
-
- * 13. Santa ..... (not come) unless all the children are in bed.
14. Listen! I can hear sleigh bells. Santa ..... (be) here soon!
15. Susie and Bob ..... (be) Mary and Joseph in the Christmas play this year.
16. .... (you, help) me decorate these gingerbread cookies?
17. I've decided that this year I ..... (put) colored lights on the tree.
18. Do you think Santa ..... (eat) all of the cookies we left him?
19. I forgot to invite Tony to the Christmas party! I..... (call) him now.
-

20. If you wrap these gifts, I ..... (tie) a bow on them.

21. Sandy hates the taste of eggnog. She simply ..... (not drink) it.

22. In 2050, Christmas ..... (be) on a Sunday.

23. It's the last weekend before Christmas, so the shops ..... (be) very crowded.

24. —I'm going to the store for some candy canes. —Great! I..... (come) with you.

25. I promise I ..... (not tell) Eddie that you're his Secret Santa.

