Complete with SOMETHING, ANYTHING, NOTHING, EVERYTHING

1. Hey Martin, there's no food in the fridge, you've eaten _____!

2. What would you like to watch? _____ interesting, let's watch a comedy.

3. We asked her why she was sad, but she didn't tell us _____.

4. I think _____is wrong with my dog, he doesn't want to eat _____. I should take him to the vet.

5. It is a fantastic city, _____ is so beautiful here: buildings, parks, streets!

6. Don't ask me about it, I know _____ about computers, you should ask Peter, he knows _____, he will answer all your questions.

Complete with SOMEONE, ANYONE, NO ONE, EVERYONE

1. _____ stole my bike last week. – Did the police find who it was? Did they arrest _____? – No, they asked a lot of people, but _____ knows what happened.

2. When you went to the park yesterday, did you meet _____? – No, the park was empty, I saw _____. I think _____ was at home.

3. That house is empty _____ has lived there for some time. – It can't be true, I saw _____in the window yesterday. - Did you tell _____ about it? I think you should tell the police, you might have seen a criminal.

4. It is so boring here, _____ has left, I have _____ to talk to.

Complete with SOMEWHERE, ANYWHERE, NOWHERE, EVERYWHERE

1. I've lost my keys, I've looked for them _____, but I can't find them _____.

2. I like winter in my country, there is a lot of snow _____.

3. Have you seen my umbrella _____? I put it _____, but I don't remember where and now I don't see it _____.

4. That town is boring, there is _____ to go, so I don't want to spend my holiday there, I want to go _____ more exciting.

5. I love museums, _____ you look you can see nice old things.

6. Did you go _____ nice on holiday? – No, we went _____, we stayed at home and watched TV. It was horrible!

LIVEWORKSHEETS