Hi! My name is Jack, and I'm twelve years old. I usually get up at half past six on school days. Then I have breakfast, get dressed, and ride my bike to school with my friend Tom. We often talk about our teachers or our favourite video games.

After school, I normally do my homework before dinner, but today I'm not doing it — I'm playing football in the playground with my cousin. We don't play every day, but we usually play three times a week. I really like football, but my cousin prefers cycling, so tomorrow he's going to ride his bike around the park.

In my free time, I enjoy drawing and playing computer games. I sometimes read books in my room, but I never use my phone at night. Right now, I'm drawing a picture while my dad is making dinner in the kitchen.

At weekends, I have more time to relax and have fun. On Saturdays, I always go to my guitar class at eleven o'clock. On Sundays, I usually stay at home with my family, but this Sunday I'm not staying at home — I'm visiting a friend to work on a school project. I'm happy because I enjoy learning new things and spending time with people I like!
