FORM 11. UNIT 4. Lesson 2

I. Match the words to make colocations.

| | |
|---|---|
| the final | minister |
| general | democracy |
| prime | election |
| parliamentary | say |

II. Complete the sentences using the collocations from ex. I

1. Mr Ingraham, a lawyer, served two terms as _____ between 1992 and 2002.
2. Spain is organised as a _____ and is a constitutional monarchy.
3. Your mom is like the US Supreme Court, which has _____in court cases.
4. He faced New Zealand voters for the first time during the 2002 _____ .

III. The underlined fragments have been misplaced. Put them in the correct sentences. (Write the correct word at the end of the sentence)

1. A constituency often fails to get the 25 % attendance needed for a quorum. _____
2. The government plans to submit the House of Commons to parliament for an emergency vote on Tuesday. _____
3. By the following spring, he will have begun to influence on the elections to the House of Lords. _____

LIVEWORKSHEETS

4. The Conservative ME has offered a 250,000 prize for the best solution to how one or more countries could leave the euro._____

5. How can someone represent the bill of thousands of people at the age of 31? _____

6. There are about 780 members of the National Assembly and they're not currently voted for by the public. _____

7. The country is divided into regions and each one has a peer who represents that region. _____

LIVEWORKSHEETS