

1. The doctor suggests _____ more fruits and vegetables for a healthy diet.

- Exercise 2: Read the text and choose the correct options.

However, in recent times, children's eating habits have changed significantly. Fast food chains like McDonald's and KFC have become popular, offering quick and convenient meals that are often high in unhealthy fats and sugars. Children are drawn to these foods due to their catchy advertising and toy giveaways. Additionally, processed snacks like chips, candies, and sugary drinks have become staples in many children's diets. Families are busy now, so they might not have time to cook at home. Instead, they might order food from a restaurant or buy ready-made meals from the store. This means children are eating more unhealthy foods than before.
