

Прочитайте текст. Из каждой строки выпишите ОДНО лишнее слово.

If you get really nervous when do you have to perform in front of an audience, you're not _____ alone. Even some very experienced actors and musicians which get extremely anxious _____ before performing. Some people say us that feeling anxious makes them give a better _____ performance, but each other people can feel so nervous that they can't perform at all. _____
 This is a very serious problem because it affects on their confidence and can destroy _____ their career. The most useful thing have to do if you feel worried about a performance is _____ to try to relax. Don't think about all the things that could go wrong. Instead this, keep _____ calm and think positively. Before the performance, imagine how the audience clapping _____ and laughing them. Think about how good you'll feel after a successful performance. _____
 And remember, if you make a few mistakes, the audience probably won't be even notice. _____

II. Прочитайте текст. От приведенных в скобках слов образуйте ОДНОКОРЕННЫЕ слова таким образом, чтобы они грамматически и лексически соответствовали содержанию текста. Заполните пропуски полученными словами. Помните, что заданную форму слова необходимо изменить.

In the past, British children were frequently _____ (COURAGE) to try out their performing skills for the benefit of adults. They did this by reading aloud, acting or playing a musical instrument. As they grew up they were taken to public places of entertainment – the theatre, the opera, circus or ballet. They looked forward to these occasions with great excitement and would remember and discuss what they had seen for many weeks afterwards. But nowadays, the _____ (AVAILABLE) of entertainment such as television and computers makes it possible for children to quickly accept these marvellous _____ (INVENT) as a very ordinary part of their everyday lives.
 _____ (FORTUNE), for many children, the sense of witnessing a very special live performance is gone forever.