

Grammar Review

A. One punctuation is missing from each sentence.

Use the full stop, question mark, exclamation mark, comma and apostrophe to complete each sentence.

Roger, the handsome man is standing next to her.

"Why did you buy this book" asked Michael.

I bought some grapes, apples plums and pears.

Ian said that he would like to go

B. Use the prefixes below to complete the given sentences correctly

un dis in il ir re im

You are always mentioning ____ relevant points.

The blow he received rendered him ____ mobile.

Shauna seemed very ____ pleased about the young man's advances.

The pupils were taught how to _____ heat food in the oven.

Jimmy the courageous watch dog _____ mantled his home.

The Principal scolded the pupil for his _____ mature behaviour.

There are several laws against _____ decent behaviour.

The lady _____ embarked from the bus.

She was involved in an _____ fortunate accident.

C. Use appropriate suffixes to form words to complete given sentences.

1) FRAGRANT: The _____ of the flowers filled the air.

2) DESTROY: Hurricanes usually cause much _____ and suffering.

3) DESCRIBE: The witness gave a detailed _____ of the burglar.

4) DECORATIVE: The children used colourful ribbons and potted plants to _____ their classroom.

5) RESIST: Pawpaw trees have little _____ to certain diseases.

6) OCCUPY: Julia's _____ is a customer service clerk.