An internet forum

Iliana 14th April 4.30 p.m.

My parents always tell me my lifestyle is unhealthy. Mum says I eat too much fast food, but how much is too much? I go out with my friends twice a week, and we have pizzas, burgers and a coke. Where's the problem? That's what young people normally do! I have lots of fruit at home, I eat normal home cooking – I'm not a fussy eater like a vegan or anything! My dad says I should get more exercise, but he sits on the sofa all day watching the TV!

Magda 14th April 4.50 p.m.

You shouldn't worry about what your parents think! My parents are never happy with what I do, but you learn not to listen! Have you got any brothers or sisters with a food problem? I have a sister who doesn't like vegetables, fish or cheese. She only likes sausages, pasta and fruit! I think she should see a doctor! But my parents don't worry very much – they say it's just part of growing up!

Petra 15th April 11.20 a.m.

You two are lucky! Your parents know how to cook! They should send my parents to a cookery school! We get cabbage four times a week, and take-away meals the other days. When I want some fruit, I have to buy it myself. My father's like Homer Simpson – he eats everything and anything, and then he wants some more! It's painful to watch him and I get a headache from listening to him! Maybe I should go and live with my grandparents – they always have good food!

Write the correct names (Iliana, Magda or Petra) in the blanks.

- 1 _____ sometimes has fast food.
- 2 _____ doesn't listen to her parents.
- 3 _____ prefers her grandparents' cooking.
- 4 _____'s father doesn't do any exercise.
- 5 _____'s parents don't give her any fruit.
