FACTUAL RECOUNT TEXT

Read the following factual recount story!

The Flash Flood in North Sumatra

In November 2025 four regions in North Sumatra, namely Sibolga, North Tapanuli, Central Tapanuli, and South Tapanuli were hit by flash floods and landslides at the same time. Many rivers overflowed after days of heavy rain, and people were surprised because the flood came suddenly at night, damaging many roads and bridges.

(Source: BNPB, 2025)

Experts from Gadjah Mada University explained that one of the main causes of the flood was damage to the forest ecosystem in the upper watershed. Many trees had been cut down, so the rainwater could not be absorbed by the soil. The water quickly flowed into the lowlands and flooded nearby villages.

(Source: UGM, 2025)

Scientists found that the flood was not only caused by human activities. A strong tropical cyclone called Senyar formed in the Indian Ocean and brought very heavy rain and strong winds to North Sumatra for several days. It made the flood even more dangerous.

Other sources explain the flood caused many victims in four regencies of North Sumatra. In Sibolga, 55 people lost their lives. In North Tapanuli, 36 people died. In Central Tapanuli, 133 people were reported dead, and in South Tapanuli, 88 people died. In total, the death toll reached 312 people in those areas. Many people were still missing, and thousands had to stay in emergency shelters. Emergency teams worked day and night to search for survivors and send food to the refugees. (Source: Detik News, 2025)

The flood in North Sumatra reminded everyone about the importance of protecting nature. Forests and rivers must be managed well to prevent future disasters. The government and local people need to work together to stop deforestation and restore the damaged ecosystem. This tragedy became a lesson for all to take better care of the environment.
