

GRAMMAR

MODIFYING COMPARATIVE AND SUPERLATIVE ADJECTIVES

1 Choose the correct options.

- 1 Commuting by bike is considerably / among more eco-friendly than commuting by car.
- 2 We always get an apartment near the sea so that we can spend the longest time by far / possible on the beach every day.
- 3 I liked Chicago, but it wasn't such / as an impressive city as New York.
- 4 The once-in-a-lifetime trip to Nepal was one of / somewhat the most profound experiences of my life.
- 5 It's much cheaper renting / to rent a holiday flat for a week than to stay in a hotel.
- 6 We complained about the condition of our room, but the new room they gave us wasn't any / even better.
- 7 Parts of the north of Scotland have such / as beautiful a landscape as anywhere in the world.

2 Match the grammar rules below to the sentences 1–7 in Exercise 1.

- A Modifiers such as even, a great deal, considerably, substantially and somewhat can be used before comparative adjectives.
- B Modifiers such as by far, easily, one of and among can be used before superlative adjectives.
- C No or not any can form the negative before a comparative adjective.
- D We can use a postmodifier (e.g. possible, ever, by far) to make the superlative stronger, in the structure superlative + postmodifier, or superlative + noun + postmodifier.
- E A comparative adjective can be followed by to infinitive + than + to infinitive.
- F We can make comparisons using structures with as: (not) as + adjective + a/an + noun + as
- G We can make comparisons using structures with such: not such + a/an + adjective + noun + as

3 Rewrite the sentences using the comparative or superlative structure from Exercise 2 in brackets.

- 0 Travelling by train is more economical than flying. (E)
It is more economical to travel by train than to fly.
- 1 You're a more skilful player than I am. (G)
I'm not .
- 2 We have never had such a great weekend getaway. (D)
It was our .
- 3 Paris is a much more expensive city than Berlin. (A)
Berlin is .
- 4 The first tour was boring, and the second tour was equally boring. (C)
The second tour .
- 5 Lisbon is as beautiful a city as any I have ever visited. (B)
Lisbon is .
- 6 Simon is equally enthusiastic about travelling as his sister. (F)
Simon's sister is .

4 Put a tick next to the correct sentence in each pair.

Sometimes both are correct.

- 0 A: I've never been bored than when I got stranded at the airport for two days. _____
B: I've never been more bored than when I got stranded at the airport for two days. ✓
- 1 A: That joke isn't any funnier than the first time you told it. _____
B: That joke isn't any more funny than the first time you told it. _____
- 2 A: You think I care, but you couldn't be wronger. _____
B: You think I care, but you couldn't be more wrong. _____
- 3 A: I thought she'd have been graterfuller for the help I gave her. _____
B: I thought she'd have been more grateful for the help I gave her. _____
- 4 A: Just download the app and place your order – it couldn't be simpler. _____
B: Just download the app and place your order – it couldn't be more simple. _____
- 5 A: The film was much more moving than I expected. _____
B: The film was much movinger than I expected. _____
- 6 A: I'd say the sky looks greyer than blue today. _____
B: I'd say the sky looks more grey than blue today. _____

5 Correct the mistakes in the sentences or put a tick by any you think are correct.

- 1 Springtime is far the best season to visit my country.

2 I have never known such gentle animal as my neighbour's dog. _____

3 Her seat on the return journey was no more comfortable than the one she had on the way out. _____

4 Your hair looks more browner than blond at the moment. _____

5 Our previous teacher was considerably cleverer than the current one. _____

6 Thankfully, it wasn't such as expensive hotel as the one we stayed in last time. _____

6 Complete the blog post using one word in each gap.

Monsoon holiday

I'm writing this post from my hotel room. This was supposed to be the best holiday ¹ , but I have never been ² bored than I am right now. Coming to the Maldives during the monsoon season was not ³ a brilliant idea as I thought it was. Sure, the tickets were a ⁴ deal cheaper than for any other time of the year. Now I know why – it's been raining since I arrived.

The hotel itself is nice, which is a relief because it's by ⁵ the most expensive hotel I've ever stayed in!

The food here is fine, but, to be honest, no ⁶ than what I can get for half the price in my home town.

The hotel manager says the weather will improve tomorrow, and I hope he's right. It would have been much wiser of me to stay at home ⁷ to spend all that money coming here to sit in a hotel room. This was not ⁸ of my best decisions!