

Text C

You are going to hear a podcast on Indigenous identity fraud.

16. Choose the five true statements.

[5]

☐
☐
☐
☐
☐

- A. Not enough jobs are designated specifically for Indigenous peoples.
- B. Information from secret sources prompted the programme's investigation.
- C. People often try to stay in their jobs even when suspected of lying about their ancestry.
- D. People who lie about their Indigenous identity do so typically to advance their careers.
- E. Indigenous identity fraud is particularly serious among politicians.
- F. Universities tend to trust applicants regarding their claims about Indigenous ties.
- G. The punishment for Indigenous identity fraud is too mild.
- H. An ID system is a feasible short-term solution to Indigenous identity fraud.
- I. The speaker thinks people should take an oath about their Indigenous identity.
- J. Indigenous identity fraudsters often choose atypical Indigenous names.

Notes/Notas:

Answer the following questions.

17. What is the impact of Indigenous identity fraud on Indigenous cultures?

.....

18. What has enabled fraudsters to hide their fake Indigenous identity?

.....

19. What type of employment is intended to empower Indigenous communities?

.....

20. What makes physical spaces particularly significant to Indigenous communities?

.....

21. According to the speaker, what is the best way to build relationships with Indigenous communities?

.....

Notes/Notas: