

THE ENVIRONMENT

VOCABULARY MATCHING

Draw lines to match the definitions to the words on the right.

When Earth's weather becomes different over a long time because of pollution and too much gas in the air

Power from natural sources that don't run out, like the sun, wind, or water.

Dirty or harmful things in the air, water, or land that hurt people, animals, and nature.

Using resources in a way that doesn't harm the Earth and helps keep it safe for the future.

Old food and plants that break down into healthy soil to help new plants grow.

The practice of turning used things like paper, plastic, or cans into something new.

Animals and plants that live freely in nature, without help from humans.

Protecting nature and saving resources so they last a long time.

Name:

Course:

RENEWABLE ENERGY

WILDLIFE

RECYCLING

SUSTAINABLE

CONSERVATION

CLIMATE CHANGE

COMPOST

POLLUTION

