Road Safety Tips

Anna: When I travel in my parents' car, I always wear a seatbelt. It keeps me safe if there's a sudden stop or accident. I remind everyone to put their seatbelt on before we start the journey. At school, our teacher told us how important it is to follow this rule every time. My little brother didn't like wearing his seatbelt at first, but now he knows it's for his safety.

Ben: I love riding my bicycle in the park near my house. My parents bought me a helmet, and I never ride without it. Wearing a helmet protects my head in case I fall. My dad also gave me a reflective armband to wear, so drivers can see me even when it gets dark. On weekends, I sometimes ride with my friends, and we all make sure to follow the rules of the road.

Chris: My house is near a busy road where lorries often pass by. When I walk to school, I always use the pedestrian crossing. It's the safest way to cross the road. My mom taught me to look left, right, and left again before crossing. She also told me to never wear headphones while walking near busy roads because it's important to hear the traffic.
