

Name: _____

Score: _____

19 Multiple choice questions

Term

What was the impact of the fur trade on Native Americans in Louisiana?

1 of 19

- The fur trade led to increased Native American land ownership
- The fur trade fostered peace and Cooperation Among tribes
- The fur trade enhanced Native American Culture And economy
- The fur trade eventually diminished, affecting Native American livelihoods.

Term

What skills were enslaved Africans known for in colonial Louisiana?

2 of 19

- They were experts in dairy farming and agriculture.
- A set of laws that regulated the lives of enslaved Africans in Louisiana
- French and their native languages
- Farming, agriculture, and craftsmanship

Term

When did the first enslaved Africans arrive in Louisiana?

3 of 19

- 1685
- 1750
- 1719
- 1730

Term

What was the main religion in the French colony of Louisiana?

4 of 19

- Protestant Christianity
- Roman Catholicism
- Orthodox Christianity
- Eastern Orthodoxy

Term

Which group of nuns helped African and Native American people in colonial Louisiana?

5 of 19

- The Jesuitas
- The Ursulines
- The Dominicans
- The Capuchins

Term

What was the Code Noir?

6 of 19

- A set of trade agreements with African nations
- A collection of French laws governing colonial commerce
- A set of laws that regulated the lives of enslaved Africans in Louisiana
- A treaty between France and Spain regarding Louisiana boundaries

How did the German immigrants contribute to the economy of colonial Louisiana?

- They were experts in dairy farming and agriculture.
- They excelled in textile manufacturing and crafts
- They were skilled in mining and metallurgy
- They specialized in shipbuilding and maritime trade

How did the French settlers interact with Native Americans regarding land?

- They shared resources and land equally with Native Americans
- They negotiated peaceful treaties with Native Americans
- They often hacked Native American people and took over their land.
- They adopted Native American customs and traditions

What was a common reason for Germans to migrate to Louisiana?

- To establish trade routes with Native Americans
- To escape oppressive laws and advertisements for land
- To seek religious freedom and build churches
- To find gold and mineral resources

What was the relationship between French settlers and Native Americans in colonial Louisiana?

- The French encouraged cooperation but also spread diseases and attempted to assimilate Native Americans.
- The French avoided contact with Native Americans
- The French engaged in constant warfare with Native Americans
- The French focused solely on converting Native Americans to Christianity

What was the role of enslaved Africans when they were not working on plantations?

- They engaged in agricultural research and development
- They participated in political meetings and governance
- They engaged in trade, music, and dance.
- They focused on religious studies and ceremonies

What role did missionaries play in colonial Louisiana?

- They oversaw military operations and defense
- They administered colonial laws and justice
- They served as chaplains and attempted to convert both French settlers and Indigenous peoples.
- They managed colonial finances and trade

What was the significance of the term 'Creole' in colonial Louisiana?

- It described European immigrants seeking citizenship
- It referred to Native American tribes in Louisiana
- It referred to the first generation of people born in Louisiana of both French and Spanish descent.
- It denoted enslaved Africans brought to Louisiana

What was the significance of the first free African documented in Louisiana?

- It referred to the first generation of people born in Louisiana of both French and Spanish descent.
- It marked the presence of free people of African descent in the colony by 1724.
- It indicated the start of African immigration in Louisiana
- It marked the beginning of racial equality in the colony

What was the cultural influence of Creole people in Louisiana?

- They were vital in shaping the region's architecture, cuisine, and music.
- They established British trade networks and customs
- They developed German engineering and technology
- They introduced Spanish agricultural practices

What term refers to free people of color in colonial Louisiana?

- Simon bolivar
- Don jose nunez
- Roman Catholicism
- Gens de Couleur Libres

What were the primary languages spoken by enslaved Africans in Louisiana?

- Dutch and Portuguese
- Spanish and English
- Italian and German
- French and their native languages

What cultural contributions did Creole people make in Louisiana?

- They contributed to jazz, rhythm and blues, architecture, food, and music.
- They introduced Spanish architecture and cuisine
- They established British musical traditions
- They developed agricultural techniques and farming methods

Where did most Germans settle in colonial Louisiana?

- The Ursulines
- French and their Native Languages
- On the German Coast
- Gens De Couleur Libres