

Text C

You are going to hear a radio interview with a journalist called Simon who is talking about the psychology of hobbies.

Choose the correct answer.

1. According to Simon, what can you learn by knowing about people's hobbies

☐

- A. What kind of job they have.
- B. What kind of person they are.
- C. What kind of skills they have.

2. What can hobbies immediately show about people?

☐

- A. Whether they prefer being alone or with others.
- B. Whether they are creative.
- C. Whether they are competitive.

3. For people who enjoy singing in a choir, what is especially important?

☐

- A. Sharing goals with others.
- B. Improving musical skills.
- C. Performing in public.

Notes/Notas:

4. Why does Simon mention famous people like Jarvis Cocker and Brian May?

☐

- A. To compare different music careers.
- B. To show hobbies can be solitary.
- C. To promote outdoor activities.

5. According to Simon, why do public figures often take up quiet hobbies?

☐

- A. To improve concentration
- B. To escape public attention.
- C. To develop new professional skills.

Answer the following questions.

6. What activity do actors often use to pass the time while filming?

.....

7. What does Simon say hobbies can reveal about a person's character?

.....

8. What motivates Bill Wyman's interest in metal detecting?

.....

9. What personality trait does Simon associate with political leaders' hobbies?

.....

10. What example does Simon give to show that he shares this tendency himself?

.....

Notes/Notas: