

20 Multiple choice questions

Term

From where does Louisiana's civil law system originate?

1 of 20

- Louisiana's civil law system comes from the Spanish Colonial Code.
- Louisiana's civil law system comes from the British Common Law.
- Louisiana's civil law system comes from the Napoleonic Code.
- Louisiana's civil law system comes from the Roman Empire.

Term

Which Louisiana city is famous for jazz and Mardi Gras?

2 of 20

- New Orleans is famous for jazz and Mardi Gras.
- Shreveport is famous for blues and Mardi Gras.
- Lafayette is famous for country music and Mardi Gras.
- Baton Rouge is famous for jazz and Mardi Gras.

Term

What type of primary election does Louisiana use?

3 of 20

- Louisiana uses a closed primary election.
- Louisiana uses a ranked-choice primary election.
- Louisiana uses an open primary election.
- Louisiana uses a caucus primary election.

Term

Which branch of government interprets laws?

4 of 20

- The Legislative branch interprets laws.
- The Judicial branch interprets laws.
- The Executive branch interprets laws.
- The Administrative branch interprets laws.

Term

Which region of Louisiana is famous for Cajun & Zydeco music?

5 of 20

- Cajun Country is famous for Cajun & Zydeco music.
- Acadiana is famous for blues and jazz music.
- New Orleans is famous for Country and Rock music.
- Bayou Country is famous for Classical and Folk music.

Term

Which tribe is known for basket weaving and was federally recognized in 1973?

6 of 20

- The Chitimacha tribe is known for weaving textiles and was federally recognized in 1973.
- The Houma tribe is known for carving sculptures and was federally recognized in 1973.
- The Tunica-Biloxi tribe is known for basket weaving and was federally recognized in 1973.
- The Coushatta tribe is known for pottery and was federally recognized in 1973.

What does scarcity mean?

- Workers are an example of a human resource.
- Scarcity means limited needs and abundant resources.
- Scarcity means equal resources and equal wants.
- Scarcity means unlimited wants and limited resources.

What type of climate does Louisiana have?

- Louisiana has a humid subtropical climate.
- Louisiana has a dry desert climate.
- Louisiana has a cold alpine climate.
- Louisiana has a tropical monsoon climate.

Which dish shows Spanish influence on Louisiana cuisine?

- Jambalaya shows Spanish influence on Louisiana cuisine.
- Gumbo shows Italian influence on Louisiana cuisine.
- Boudin shows British influence on Louisiana cuisine.
- Crawfish étouffée shows German influence on Louisiana cuisine.

What is an example of a human resource?

- Machines are an example of a human resource.
- Land is an example of a human resource.
- Capital is an example of a human resource.
- Workers are an example of a human resource.

What man-made structure helps protect New Orleans from flooding?

- The Louisiana Flood Barrier helps protect New Orleans by controlling rainfall.
- The Bonnet Carré Spillway helps protect New Orleans by diverting floodwater.
- The Mississippi River Dam protects New Orleans from flooding.
- The New Orleans Levee System diverts floodwater to prevent damage.

Which Spanish governor helped Americans in the Revolutionary War?

- Juan de Onate helped Americans in the Revolutionary War.
- Gaspar de Portola helped Americans in the Revolutionary War.
- Bernardo de Gálvez helped Americans in the Revolutionary War.
- Antonio de Ulloa helped Americans in the Revolutionary War.

How many parishes does Louisiana have?

- Louisiana has 64 parishes.
- Louisiana has 48 parishes.
- Louisiana has 52 parishes.
- Louisiana has 75 parishes.

What natural region is Louisiana known for?

- Louisiana is situated in the Great Plains, known for grasslands and prairies.
- Louisiana is located in the Appalachian Region, known for mountains and forests.
- Louisiana is located in the Mississippi Floodplain, known for fertile soil, swamps, and natural levees.
- Louisiana is part of the Rocky Mountain Range, known for high altitudes and deserts.

Who established Spanish control over Louisiana after the 1768 revolt?

- Jean-Baptiste Lamy established Spanish control over Louisiana after the 1768 revolt.
- Pierre-Auguste Laclede established Spanish control over Louisiana after the 1768 revolt.
- Alejandro O'Reilly firmly established Spanish control over Louisiana after the 1768 revolt.
- Philippe De Morant established Spanish control over Louisiana after the 1768 revolt.

Which prehistoric era in Louisiana featured farming of corn, beans, and squash?

- The Meso era featured fishing and foraging.
- The Paleo era featured hunting and gathering.
- The Early Neo era featured farming of corn, beans, and squash.
- The Late Neo era featured metalworking and trade.

Which group of immigrants from Canada did Spanish Louisiana encourage?

- Spanish Louisiana encouraged Italian immigrants.
- Spanish Louisiana encouraged Acadians (Cajuns) to immigrate.
- Spanish Louisiana encouraged Irish immigrants.
- Spanish Louisiana encouraged German immigrants.

Which tribe was destroyed after killing about 200 French settlers in 1729?

- The Natchez tribe was destroyed after killing about 200 French settlers in 1729.
- The Acadians, also known as Cajuns, are the French Canadians who settled in Louisiana.
- New Orleans is famous for jazz and Mardi Gras.
- Spanish Louisiana encouraged Acadians (Cajuns) to immigrate.

Which ethnic group are French Canadians who settled in Louisiana?

- The Bretons are the French Canadians who settled in Louisiana.
- The Acadians, also known as Cajuns, are the French Canadians who settled in Louisiana.
- The Huguenots are the French Canadians who settled in Louisiana.
- The Normans are the French Canadians who settled in Louisiana.

What is Louisiana's largest natural lake?

- Lake Charles is Louisiana's largest natural lake.
- Lake Pontchartrain is Louisiana's largest natural lake.
- Lake Cataouatche is Louisiana's largest natural lake.
- Lake Bistineau is Louisiana's largest natural lake.