

SUPERSTITIONS AROUND THE WORLD

First Conditional – Matching (10 items)

Instructions: Match each sentence part with the correct one to form a meaningful First Conditional sentence. Write the correct number or letter in the box.

(Each answer is used only once.)

No.	Part of Sentence	Match	<input type="text"/>
1.	If you break a mirror,	A. If a black cat crosses your path,	<input type="text"/>
2.	they will feel safer.	B. you will be unlucky.	<input type="text"/>
3.	If you see a horseshoe,	C. it will protect you from bad luck.	<input type="text"/>
4.	superstitions won't affect their life.	D. If you open an umbrella indoors.	<input type="text"/>
5.	If people follow superstitions,	E. you will bring bad luck.	<input type="text"/>
6.	you will have bad luck for seven years,	F. they will change their behavior.	<input type="text"/>
7.	If a black cat crosses your path,	G. If you walk under a ladder,	<input type="text"/>
8.	it will protect you from bad luck!	H. If you see a horseshoe.	<input type="text"/>
9.	If someone doesn't believe in superstitions,	I. If someone doesn't believe in superstitions,	<input type="text"/>
10.	you will be unlucky.	J. you will have good luck.	<input type="text"/>