

Let's review!

- I. Identify the name or detail from the literary selections discussed that is being described in the statement.
1. Who is the character who imagines a wealthy life after believing he won in the lottery. (complete name)

 2. What theme of "The Lottery Ticket" highlights how excessive materialism desire affect relationships? _____
 3. What is the animal's name in "My Donkey and I?" _____
 4. What does the girl want to express when she offers oranges to the man and his donkey? _____
 5. What is the name of the poor entertainer who offers his talent to honor the Virgin Mary? _____
 6. Where is the holy place where monks dedicate their lives to prayer and service? _____
- II. Write the modifier and the word being modified in the sentence, then identify whether the modifier is an Adjective (Adj) or a Noun Modifier (NM).
1. Bible Month encourages the community to deepen love towards God.
 2. The celebration reminds everyone of the teachings found in the Holy Bible.
 3. Through the activities, students reflect on the message of the Sacred Scripture.

MODIFIER EXAMPLE: literary	WORD IT MODIFIES selection	TYPE ADJ
1.
2.
3.

- III. Write CORRECT if the lines follow rules in writing scripts, otherwise, write WRONG.
1. "I will help you," said Maria. _____
 2. "Where are you going"? she asked. _____
 3. Maria asked, "Did he really say, 'I will never come back'?" _____
 4. "I am not sure about this part." Luke answered. "I can help you answer that," Maria replied. _____
- IV. One the first blank, write the pronoun that will complete the statement, then, on the second blank, write its antecedent.
1. The devotees joined the procession as _____ prayed fervently. _____
 2. The parish prepared the celebration, and _____ welcomed thousands of devotees.
 3. Each pilgrim wiped the image, hoping that _____ would receive blessings. _____
 4. Neither the pilgrims nor the priest forgot to offer _____ prayers.