

Listening Part 4

- Don't worry if you're not sure of an answer the first time you listen. You will hear the recording again.
- You may be able to eliminate one of the options, and then decide between the two you think may be correct.

Exam advice

1 For each question, choose the correct answer.

08 You will hear an interview with a boy called Luke, who is going to spend time in the desert.

- Luke's father is going to the desert to
 - teach.
 - clean the area.
 - build a medical centre.
- Luke hopes to
 - record most of the journey with his camera.
 - get more support for the project.
 - reach the camp quickly.
- Luke may have to
 - limit the time he can use his equipment.
 - borrow some equipment.
 - use his equipment more at the end of the day.
- What difficulty might Luke have?
 - taking enough clothes
 - staying warm at night
 - keeping cool during the day
- Luke will eat food that is
 - brought from a different place.
 - provided by the local people.
 - unique to the desert.
- Luke is anxious because
 - he doesn't know how he'll communicate with people.
 - he might not sleep well.
 - he hasn't travelled to a foreign country before.

Grammar

too and enough

1 Complete the second sentence so that it means the same as the first. Use too or enough.

- I couldn't eat the soup. It was really hot.
The soup was to eat.
- She's only sixteen years old. She can't get married.
She isn't to get married.
- My house is far from the town centre. I can't walk there.
My house is from the town centre to walk there.
- He's very clever. He can go to a good university.
He's to go to a good university.
- It was very dark. They couldn't see the road.
It was to see the road.
- My jacket isn't warm. I can't wear it for skiing.
My jacket isn't to wear it for skiing.
- My mum's car has got seven seats. She can take all of us to the station.
My mum's car is to take all of us to the station.
- There are a lot of people. We can't give them all free tickets.
There are to give them all free tickets.

extremely, fairly, quite, rather, really and very

2 Choose the correct option in italics.

- The play was extremely / fairly interesting but I thought the second half was a little boring.
- She worked really / quite hard and got top marks for her project.
- I'm rather / quite sure that Ollie's at home now, so let's go and see him.
- I'm really / fairly surprised they went to see that film – they hate sci-fi movies.

