TRS601 – Sociology + Economics 1

Choose the best answer A, B, C, or D.

1. The military leadership accepted a small _____ during the first battle in order to achieve a much greater victory later in the campaign.
   A. downfall
   B. tactical loss
   C. hiccup
   D. discipline
2. The company made a carefully planned _____ decision to enter the Asian market because it believed this would lead to long-term growth and stability.
   A. episodic
   B. strategic
   C. fluid
   D. generic
3. A _____ of people gathered in the city center to celebrate the country's independence despite the heavy rain.
   A. sphere
   B. discipline
   C. vast number
   D. allegiance
4. Poor _____ within the government resulted in schools and hospitals receiving far less funding than they actually needed.
   A. resource allocation
   B. nationalistic pride
   C. free trade
   D. reinforcement
5. Her _____ goal was to become a diplomat after she had completed many years of study and international training.
   A. critical
   B. eventual
   C. equivalent
   D. fluid
6. Cultural traditions and social customs form an important _____ in which individuals develop their beliefs and values.
   A. sphere
   B. cede
   C. tariff
   D. hiccup
7. Her strong sense of _____ was shaped by her childhood experiences as well as her connection to her national culture.
   A. protectionist measure
   B. self-identity
   C. discipline
   D. allegiance
8. The results of this research closely _____ the statistics that were published by the government earlier this year.
   A. go awry
   B. correspond to
   C. rally
   D. foster

LIVEWORKSHEETS

9. The biography described several _____ moments in the leader's life, focusing on key events rather than continuous history.
   A. episodic
   B. robust
   C. generic
   D. fluid
10. Heart attacks and serious strokes are _____ that require immediate medical attention in order to prevent death.
   A. free trade
   B. life-threatening events
   C. reinforcement
   D. patriotism
11. Water is a _____ substance that changes its shape depending on the container in which it is stored.
   A. fluid
   B. strategic
   C. retaliatory
   D. indisputable
12. Strong _____ often grows during times of war, when citizens feel a deep emotional connection to their country.
   A. patriotism
   B. opportunity cost
   C. antiquity
   D. downfall
13. The government tried to _____ public support for the new policy by running persuasive advertising campaigns.
   A. incur
   B. foster
   C. cede
   D. opt for
14. His _____ allowed him to attend high-level meetings and speak officially on behalf of his country.
   A. diplomatic status
   B. reinforcement
   C. discipline
   D. allegiance
15. The evidence was so strong that it was considered _____ by most scientists in the field.
   A. indisputable
   B. generic
   C. retaliatory
   D. fluid
16. The ancient temple has survived since _____, making it one of the oldest buildings in the region.
   A. antiquity
   B. downfall
   C. reinforcement
   D. sanction
17. The company's poor management decisions eventually led to its financial _____ after many years of losses.
   A. downfall
   B. leverage
   C. sphere
   D. hiccup

LIVEWORKSHEETS

18. The country agreed to _____ control of the disputed territory in exchange for peace and economic support.
    A. foster
    B. cede
    C. tackle
    D. incur
19. There was _____ any food left in the kitchen after the large family gathering ended.
    A. scarcely
    B. predominantly
    C. analogously
    D. robustly
20. His explanation was so clear and logical that it seemed to _____ to everyone in the room.
    A. make perfect sense
    B. go awry
    C. opt for
    D. rally

21. • equivalent 22. • curb 23. • predominantly 24. • resuscitate 25. • allegiance 26. • counterintuitive 27. • robust 28. • leverage 29. • opt for 30. • retaliatory	Column B – Sentences A. The government introduced new regulations to _____ the rapid growth of illegal online gambling. B. After the patient stopped breathing, the doctors worked quickly to _____ him in the emergency room. C. Many people decided to _____ public transport instead of driving to reduce traffic congestion. D. Although it may seem _____, raising interest rates can sometimes slow down inflation. E. The new smartphone model is considered _____ to last year's version in terms of performance and price. F. Most of the population in that rural area is _____ dependent on agriculture for their income. G. The athlete showed great _____ by continuing to train despite repeated injuries. H. The company tried to _____ its strong brand reputation to enter new international markets. I. His _____ to his country remained strong even after he had lived abroad for many years. J. The country imposed _____ trade measures after its exports were heavily restricted by its neighbour.

LIVEWORKSHEETS