

Instructions: Read the article and fill in the blanks using the comparative form of the adjective in the parentheses. (Don't forget to use "than"!)

The Great Food Debate

When we go to a restaurant, we often have to make difficult choices. Some people think that a burger is (1) _____ (good) a salad because it is (2) _____ (tasty). However, doctors say that vegetables are (3) _____ (healthy) fast food.

Price is also a big factor. In many cities, eating at a café is (4) _____ (expensive) cooking at home. Usually, a homemade dinner is (5) _____ (large) a restaurant portion. But why do we love sugar? Most kids think soda is (6) _____ (nice) water, even though it is (7) _____ (bad) for your teeth.

This is because soda is (8) _____ (sweet) almost any other drink.

At the market, local fruit is often (9) _____ (cheap) imported fruit.

Also, people say that organic oranges are (10) _____ (fresh) the ones in plastic bags. Even though a snack is (11) _____ (small) a full meal, choosing a healthy one is (12) _____ (important) people realize.

In the winter, a bowl of soup is (13) _____ (hot) a sandwich, but it is often (14) _____ (difficult) to prepare.

In conclusion, eating well is (15) _____ (easy) it looks if you make the right comparisons!
