

SAME BUT DIFFERENT

THE ART of Transformation

Captain Jack Sparrow

Read the story below and then answer the questions.

What do a dark wizard, a pirate captain, and the owner of a chocolate factory have in common? At first sight, not very much. However, all of these characters are played by the same actor, Johnny Depp.

Johnny Depp is famous for his ability to transform into very different characters. In Fantastic Beasts: The Crimes of Grindelwald (2018), he plays Gellert Grindelwald, a brilliant and ambitious dark wizard with powerful magical skills.

In the Pirates of the Caribbean films, Depp becomes Captain Jack Sparrow, a cunning but likeable pirate captain. Sparrow is easily recognized by his beard, long hair, and headscarf. Although he often looks funny and careless, he is actually very clever.

In Charlie and the Chocolate Factory (2005), Depp plays Willy Wonka, the owner of a chocolate factory and the inventor of many strange and wonderful creations. Wonka seems charming at first, but his personality is more complicated than it appears.

These roles clearly show how appearance, costume, and acting can completely change the way a person looks and feels on screen.
