LISTENING 1- PAGE 38

1. What is the main purpose of the conversation?

- To explain the rules of soccer step by step
- To decide whether to watch a soccer match and talk about opinions
- To compare soccer players from different countries
- To talk about the history of soccer

2. Why does BETTY say soccer is boring at first?

- Because the players are not very fast
- Because the matches are too short
- Because there are few goals and it is too long.
- Because the fans are too loud

3. How does ALAN respond to the idea that soccer is boring?

- By agreeing that it needs more goals
- By saying soccer is only fun for experts
- By explaining that there is strategy and action even with low scores
- By changing the topic to another sport

4. How does Betty feel when she watches a soccer game?

- She feels excited to learn
- She feels angry because she doesn't understand the game.
- She feels confused when she watches a game she doesn't get it.
- She feels she needs statistics to understand better.

5. Why is basketball easier for BETTY to enjoy than soccer?

- Because basketball games are louder
- Because BETTY already knew more about basketball
- Because basketball is more popular
- Because ALAN prefers basketball

6. What can we infer about Speaker A at the end of the conversation?

- He is annoyed about explaining soccer
- He is not sure they want to watch the game
- He is willing to help and explain soccer
- He thinks soccer is better than all other sports

| 7 | I really think professional athletes are paid too much. | _____ | a | As I see it, they have a responsibility to be good role models. | _____ |
| 8 | I find it very unfair that women athletes earn less than men. | _____ | b | Yes, absolutely. There's no reason they should earn less. | _____ |
| 9 | I don't really think it's better to watch sports live than on TV. | _____ | c | It's not so much that it's better. It's just different. | _____ |
| 10 | High school students should focus on their studies, not on sports. | _____ | d | Just a second. Pro athletes train really hard. They earn their salaries. | _____ |
| 11 | Don't you think we expect too much from professional athletes? | _____ | e | OK, that's a good point, but high school sports aren't all bad. | _____ |
